Ludhiana

* There is no rigid sharp line between a city and a town or between a town and a village. Cities or Towns notified by the government are called Statutory Towns. In these towns, an urban local body like Municipal Council is formed. In Punjab, there are three types of urban local bodies - Municipal Corporation, Municipal Council and Nagar Panchayat. Municipal Councils are further divided into three categories that is Class-1, Class-2 and Class-3. A town with population above one lakh is called a city. But normally the word City or Town is used interchangeably.

* At present there are total 168 statutory towns in Punjab and another 69 census towns. Thus there are total 237 towns (or say cities) in Punjab. The list of statutory towns include 10 Municipal Corporations, 96 Municipal Councils, 59 Nagar Panchayats and 3 Cantonment Boards.
